picked up the Xerox copies I was having printed at PDQ on Mulberry - ($104.20) -- 228 copies of the promotional piece for Northeastern Pennsylvania Genealogical and Local History Reprints, Volumes I and II (microfilm edition). HCRP had 200 copies of the movie made that I produced for her about a year ago. I was surprised to see that she uses it. HCRP and I then went to Vermont Mall where she had a few errands to run -- Health Food store, Hickory Farms. On the way back up the highway, we stopped, at my suggestion, at a vegetable/fruit stand and I bought some potatoes. HCRP and I then went to the Home and did some more shopping. I was dropped off here before noon at the firehouse a matin, the contractor who is putting up the controversial wall, Tom Clark, introduced himself to me and remarked on how much he enjoyed reading my article in the NEUS. What a pleasant way to start the day. Chief Burrelli is very upset about the "wall."

September 16, 1983.

8:30-10 AM - Police station, getting the weekly report. Dotter was over at McDonnell's having coffee until about 9:30 and so I was late in meeting HCRP in front of CCH. I want to meet her at about 9:30 and did not do so until about 9:55 AM.

We drove to Scranton and I scratched my head.

Scrapped my head.
